

J O R I A N H I L L

WINE ENTHUSIAST

2007 Jorian Hill Syrah

“Good and dry, with very soft, refined tannins and complex flavors. Suffers a bit from arch acidity, but a nice steak should balance it. The delicious flavors include blackberry and cherry jam, licorice, charred meat and a hefty dose of freshly crushed black pepper.”

87 Points

- Steve Heimoff
December 2010